Dementia Education Classes

Our Adult Education Ministry will begin holding Dementia Education Classes quarterly, beginning Sunday, February 2, 2:00-4:30pm, in rooms E306/308. These classes will be led by professionals from the Alzheimer's Association. You can register for the Dementia Education Classes online at hunterstreet.org/events. Respite care will be offered if you would like to bring your loved one with you. Please email Debbie Boone, debbieb@hsbc.org, to reserve their spot.

DNOW'25 DIFFERENT

February 7 - 9

A weekend where teens learn how to be disciples who make disciples, all while living a life that looks different! This 3-day event is for Middle School and High School students and hosted by the Hunter Street Student Ministry. Speaker Landon Dowden and the Liberty Worship Collective will lead our students. Registration will remain open until the day of the event. Register at hunterstreet.org/events.

Missions Prayer Emphasis

February 1 - 28

As our church prepares for the GO Missions Conference, we encourage you to participate in the Prayer 28 (P28) initiative. This is a month-long prayer emphasis that will span the 28 days of February. We will pray for various aspects of Hunter Street's missions' efforts and our covenant mission partners leading up to the conference. Text MISSIONS at 52858 to join.
