The Hunter Street Story

Stories and Reflections from Pastor Buddy Gray

Sunday, April 26 | 4:00–5:15pm

For nearly five decades, Buddy has been part of Hunter Street's story. Having joined the staff in 1978 and serving as pastor for the past 40 years, he has witnessed—and helped lead—many of the moments that have shaped our church.

Join us for a special afternoon on Sunday, April 26, as Buddy shares reflections, stories, and memories from across the years. This will not be a dry history lecture, but a living account of God's work through generations at Hunter Street. Come hear the story and celebrate the faithfulness of God through the life of our church.

Alabama Baptist Children's Home

Alabama Baptist Children's Home, is a ministry partner many of you are familiar with. At Christmas, we took up collections to provide for their Camp of Champions. ABCH helps support foster children and families through Christ-centered services. They have volunteer opportunities and needs throughout the year.

Some volunteer options include putting together birthday boxes, yard work at a foster family's home, hosting a parent's night out, or collecting items for foster babies!

Display a Cross

We are asking you to display a cross in your yard, windows, or any place of prominence in your home starting Palm Sunday through Easter. Use a cross that you already own or pick up a pre-made cross on Sunday, March 22. Crosses will be available at the Chapel and Welcome Center entrances while supplies last. These will serve as reminders of the gospel throughout the week, as well as a witness to our neighbors. Consider gathering around your cross as a family to pray together on Good Friday.
