DISPLAY A CROSS MARCH 24 – 31

We are asking you to display a cross in your yards, windows, or any place of prominence in your home starting this Sunday (Palm Sunday) through Easter. These will serve as reminders of the gospel throughout the week, as well as a witness to our neighbors. Consider gathering around your cross as a family to pray together on Good Friday, before coming to the Remembrance service.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

hunterstreet.org/give

Give to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, which provides support to thousands of missionaries in North America. These men and women are planting new churches in unreached communities and meeting needs through compassion ministries. The gifts and prayers that you give make a difference! Give online at hunterstreet.org/give.

Remember Service

March 29 | 6:00 - 7:00pm

We will hold one Service of Remembrance this year. In this somber service we will worship together and reflect on the sacrificial death that our Lord Jesus suffered on the cross. In keeping with the spirit of reverence, we ask that you refrain from talking while on campus. This event will be livestreamed. Childcare will be available for birth-K5.

Resurrection Sunday

March 31 | 8:00, 9:30, or 11:00am

Come celebrate Resurrection Sunday with us on March 31, at 8:00, 9:30, or 11:00am! Small Groups and children's activities will be held as scheduled. In the coming weeks, Hunter Street will provide several fun ideas for how you can invite someone you know to join us that morning for Easter. If you would like to share details about our service, please direct people to hunterstreet.org/easter!
