

Hunter Street Weekly

MARCH 27, 2024

SUNDAY APRIL 28

11:00am - 4:00pm

Hunter Street's annual Church Picnic at Oak Mountain State Park will be on Sunday, April 28, following the 9:30am service, from 11:00am-4:00pm. Small groups will not meet that morning, and childcare will not be provided. Coordinate with your church friends and Small Group to spend the afternoon together in fellowship! We will have live bluegrass music, a bike parade, and a scavenger hunt for kids! Free hot dogs and chips will be offered to those who want them, and dessert truck vendors will be onsite. There will be no inflatables this year, and pets aren't allowed. The cost of entry into the park is $5 per car and tickets are available at hunterstreet.org/events.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

hunterstreet.org/give

Give to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering in support of our North American missionaries. This Easter consider the thousands of people across North America who have never heard Jesus' name. There are so many who don't know the Gospel of Christ or the salvation that He offers. Giving to the AAEO makes a difference! Give online at hunterstreet.org/give.

For decades the Hunter Street Ballpark has served families who've played youth sports through our church, and it is getting some facility updates! We are thankful for the new concession stand, paved parking lot, and sidewalks! The Hunter Street Men's Ministry recently held a volunteer work day to clean up the grounds and landscaping at the ball fields!
